I saw Marv on Jeff Mara. I decided to get a tarot reading from him because he exudes warmth, humbleness and sincerity. It's hard to say he's "right or wrong ", as I just did reading today but I can say he offers his truth and utilizes his sensitivity for reading of the cards in a way i felt was accurate. I believe he "hears" clearly and that's truly what this is about for me, his ability to see and direct based on his sense of what my guides want expressed.

Marv's reading was really quite extraordinary . It seemed to come from a higher level of consciousness that was not of this earth. I have had my cards read many times and this was hands down one of the best readings I have ever had!
- Thank you Marv. I look forward to reading your book.

I recently sought a reading from Marv Machura. I didn't know what to expect since I have never experienced a reading before. I was somewhat apprehensive about what the cards would tell me as I have experienced some traumatic events in the past few years & these events have brought great stress to my life. During the reading, Marv made me feel very relaxed and safe. Never once did I feel any negativity or criticism, rather, the gentle way in which Marv presented his findings, allowed me to consider some new strategies for my life. I was very impressed with what the future holds for me, and Marv's book is also laid out so that anyone of mature age can understand the principles of Tarot. Marv is also a very kind person, full of life experience; he comes from a solid family and his life partner, Brenda, is the backbone of his success. He delivers a message unique to you. I feel, moving forward, I can utilize Marv's interpretations in a very positive way. I'm sure his book will be a delight to anyone.

Marv has a gentle presence and i felt that while using the Five-Card Pentagon Tarot for the reading, that he draws deeply upon his innate spiritual assets.
